Page 75, "Recording of Grades upon Withdrawal," paragraphs 1, 2, 3, 4.

The section, "Withdrawal from the University," paragraph 3, should be revised to preclude not only "withdrawal from the University" but also withdrawal from a course within the period beginning three school days prior to the first final examination and the end of the quarter.

VI. Proposal to Allow a Secondary Teaching Candidate to Choose to Graduate with a B. A. or B. S. and the Teacher's Certificate - (Agenda Item 69-43).

Dean Merigis presented his views with a query that, if the proposal is adopted, would the responsibility for the majors for the B. A. & B. S. be under the jurisdiction of the Council on Teacher Education. Mr. Knott, speaking from the point of view of the Placement Office, stated that in the public schools the majority of teachers are required to teach in more than one field. Dean Williams, representing Vice President Zeigel, commented on ~~the administrative difficulties of the proposal~~. Brief statements favoring the proposal were made by: Mr. Kraig, Dr. Garner, Dr. Gabbard, and Dr. White.
